2016 Risky Business White Knuckle Chardonnay $25

There is no risk involved investing in this delightful Margaret River wine considering its fruit selection and winemaking are totally in sync. Delicate oak intervention has allowed distinctive peach-melon flavours and toasty nuances to flourish, providing a true chardonnay experience.

2016 Howard Park Mount Barker Riesling $33

Showcasing the alluring trademarks of a quality riesling, this five-star release from Mount Barker reveals a quality glimpse at every turn. If you enjoy rieslings both young and aged, this is definitely the wine for you. Sublime citrus flavours and a deft touch of minerality deliver a noteworthy result.

2015 Shaw + Smith Pinot Noir $46

The challenge to master this most temperamental variety has never fazed cousins Martin Shaw and Michael Hill Smith and this gold medal-winning Adelaide Hills release is arguably their finest to date. Light to medium-bodied, with spicy, supple and savoury flavours, it grows on you with every sip.

2015 Highland Heritage Patrono Cabernet Sauvignon $55

With his family's association with Orange dating back 70 years, current custodian Rex D'Aquino has marked the milestone with a truly elegant and finely-tuned red that accentuates cabernet sauvignon's high-standing in this cool-climate region.
